Reflecting his introvert and philosophic temperament, Haloi's abstracts have a deep relation with his inner thoughts and psyche. The thick use of colours and the minimal motifs depicts a thoughtful resignation to one's acceptance of fate .

"I try to fit the irregular movements of life into the artificial boundaries of the paintings" he says.

CHORUS

Together, we sing in harmony, becoming one with the universal consciousness

‘Chorus’ is a symphony of sound vibrations manifested through the visual form

- Abstracted human figures, inter-woven, in circular rhythms, mystical aqua greens, silver, gold and earthy hues all combine to create an opera of visual sounds.
- The quintessential movement, commemorating the cycle of creation, continues with the eternal play of creation-destruction-creation
- The earth moves, forms breathe and dance, atoms continue to vibrate to the tune of the creator.
- Amidst the chaotic world of various vibratory states, "Chorus" becomes a song of harmony, love and togetherness.
