Sujata Bajaj's canvases acts as a variation on the past, the ancestral inheritance: in the ochre yellow and red palette, we are recalled into the ritual circle of sacrifice; a hero-stone, a tribal totem, a lost goddess of fertility is suggested by certain motifs; and in the elegant calligraphy of the sacred texts, the hymns repeated until the pitch of perfection has been achieved.

Bodh is the realisation of “Consciousness” within us, the source of all life and creation.

Bodh gives wings - to liberate, to fly high, removing the mundane obstacles; moving from darkness to light, from illusion to enlightenment, from negativity to positivity.
