In this work, Shiva is in his fearsome form as Bhairav. He is the one who destroys fear and is beyond fear. All his devotees get protection from the three evils of lure, greed and anger. He liberates their ego which enables them to become one with the God, he is the one who creates, sustains and dissolves the universe. He is the supreme consciousness...

"When I read about the thousand names of Vishnu by Eknath Eshwaran, I was intrigued and reached for the Vishnu Sahasranamam. After hearing Subbulakshmi recite it, I immersed myself into painting the energy and the different vibrations of a thousand names. This panel is a part of an immersive work that surrounds you, it is composed of 360 smaller units to signify the lord's omnipresence in 360 degrees. It was done almost in a trance. I worked for three weeks round the clock with very little sleep or food! An incredible, cherished experience, here I am at my best as a colourist."

"The image of Lord Ram in this sculpture painting is of the same size as the icon in the temple. This work Shayan is third in a series of three works created on the different shringars. I have painted Shayan for dawn on silver leaf, Rajbhog on gold leaf for noon and Sandhya on copper leaf for dusk."
